

I. Description

- At each screen there will have a toolbar. The toolbar has profile button, home button, search button, user playlist button and setting button. When the user tabs on the button, it will move to the corresponding screen.

a. Profile screen

- In profile screen, the user must fill in the text box their information (name, email, date of birth, gender, and phone number).
- When they finish, they press the “Change profile” button at the end and the server will save their information.

b. Home screen

- In the home screen, it only has recommended playlist. When the user tabs on the playlist, it will show the songs in that playlist.
- c. Search screen

- When the user wants to search song, they just need to press on search button and typing the song name.
- d. My song screen

- User playlist screen will have the list of playlist or song which the user has saved.
- e. Setting screen

- In setting screen, the user will have some services like:
  - Account: to show the user account information
  - Notification: the server will send notification. When the user tabs on it, it will show notification
  - Log out: to log out current account
  - Delete account: to delete current account
  - Report error: When something goes wrong, the user can report the error by tab on it end send your error.
  - Send feedback: to send feedback to the development.